GRIZZLY WOMEN TRACKSTERS
TRAVEL TO POCA TELLO FOR
THE POTATO CLASSIC, PLACE
SECOND PLACE IN ROCKY MOUNTAIN
COLLEGE INVITATIONAL

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana women's track team will compete in the Potato Classic this Saturday, April 26, in Pocatello, ID. Teams entered include host Idaho State, Montana State, University of Utah, Brigham Young University, and Boise State. Events start at 10:00 a.m.

The women Grizzlies placed second in a field of nine teams at the Rocky Mountain College Invitational in Billings last Saturday. Coach Dick Koontz called the team's performance "the best ever by a University of Montana women's track team."

UM collected 185 points, only 14 points behind Montana State's winning total of 199. Flathead Valley Community College placed a distant third with 34 points and host Rocky Mountain was fourth with 30.

Freshman Kelly Brendle, came within one tenth of a second of breaking a school record in the 800 meters with a time of 2:19.9. Brendle also notched a UM seasonal best mark in the 1500 meters, covering the distance in 4:53.78.

Kathy Reidy, a sophomore from Missoula, won the 400 meter hurdles in 1:06.84, setting a team seasonal best mark in that event. Reidy has already qualified for regional competition in the long jump with a leap of 17-6 in an earlier meet this season.

The Grizzlies have the Potato Classic this weekend and the Eastern Washington Twilight Invitational on May 2 before the Regionals are held in Seattle on May 9-10.
